MEMO TO THE PRESS, RADIO-TV:

A few changes will be noted in the 1963-64 Maryland basketball guide which have been made with the thought of enabling you to more quickly spot salient information, especially regarding back games with old rivals. We have, for instance, eliminated the game-by-game scores throughout the years; we have, however, selected the significant items from each series such as series standings, largest margins of victory and largest point totals. And where either team has won a considerable number of games in succession, that fact has been noted. If the rivals have split their games for a number of years, attention is called to that.

A run-down on each of Maryland's opponents, as supplied by their sports information directors, is given on separate pages. They appear in alphabetical order.

Maryland's All-America players and all-time records will be found in the usual space, as will all-Atlantic Coast Conference teams since the ACC was formed in 1954.

Capsule comments of Maryland's Winter sports — swimming, track and wrestling — will be found at the end of this brochure.

We extend to each of you a warm welcome to one of the Nation's largest and most beautiful field houses at any time and look forward to seeing you at one of our many sports events during the Winter.

The undersigned stands ready to aid you at any hour of the day or night at the numbers listed below.

H. A. "Bud" MILLIKAN — Head Coach

Bud Millikan, one of the nation's top basketball coaches, this season begins his fourteenth season with the University of Maryland.

The popular Terrapin coach has had great success in his thirteen years of previous college coaching. There have been only two losing seasons since he came.

The Terps generated the most excitement across the nation with the 1957-58 team. They won the Atlantic Coast Conference championship and went on to the NCAA playoffs, winning over Boston College in Madison Square Garden in the opening round. They lost by four points to top ranked Temple in the NCAA Eastern Regional Tourney at Charlotte. They finished the season as the nation's sixth ranked team. The ACC title was the first league title won by a Maryland team since they won the old Southern Conference crown from Kentucky in 1931. For his outstanding efforts and success, he was recognized by the Baltimore Sports' Reporters Association as the top man in the State of Maryland for bringing more recognition and publicity to the State than any other figure.

Millikan is one of the hardest working coaches in the game and is considered as having one of the finest basketball minds by his fellow coaches.

His thirteen year record is 189 wins and 129 losses.

In the ten years in existence of the ACC, Millikan's teams in regular season play have finished second, twice; third, twice; fourth, twice; and fifth, twice and seventh once.

Recommended by his college coach, the famous Hank Iba, Millikan came to Maryland from the small high school gymnasium of Newton High School in Iowa. His accomplishments have so paid off that basketball interest at the University and throughout the District of Columbia and the State has skyrocketed. From the little gym at Newton High and his first "home court" of Ritchie Coliseum, Millikan sends his team before the excited fans in one of the nation's most beautiful and spacious gymnasiums, the fabulous 12,500 capacity William P. Cole, Jr., Student Activities Building. Indicative of the job he has done and the interest he has created is the fact that the Terps have played to turn-away crowds of over 15,000 people.

The popular 43-year old is a native of Maryville, Mo., and finished his high school studies there before going to college. He was a four-year letterman in football, basketball, track and tennis in high school.

Following high school, he enrolled at Oklahoma A&M and was a star guard of the varsity for three years. He was named to the all-America team for his outstanding performances of the 1941-42 season. He stayed on at A&M for one year as freshman coach before entering the service. The great all-America Bob Kurland was one of his players that year.

While a student at A&M, Millikan won honors in the classroom also. He was listed on the Dean's list all four years as an honor student.

After two years in the United States Navy, he went back to A&M to assist Iba during the 1944-45 campaign, a team that won the National Championship that year.

He then went back to Maryville High School where he coached for two years and then moved to Newton, Iowa, High School where his teams won their conference titles both years.

Then the College Park assignment was accepted. With the development of top college fives in his brief tenure at Maryland and prospects for another winning ledger this year, the Millikanmen can point with pride to their young hard-working coach.

"Bud" as he is known to all, married the former Maxine Louthan, native of Maryville. They have a son, Marshall, age 17 and a daughter, Maria Rea, age 12.

FRANK FELLOWS — Assistant Coach

Frank Fellows, a member of Millikan's first team at Maryland, returned to the University in 1961 as Assistant Basketball Coach. He handles scouting opponents for Millikan and the varsity, scouts high school prospects and coaches the Freshman team.

He received his Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education in 1953 and his Masters degree in 1957. In addition to his basketball duties he is a member of the staff of the College of Physical Education, Recreation and Health.

Fellows coached the Maryland freshmen during the 1953-54 season while working on his master's degree. He entered the Air Force in 1954 and was a member of the Far East Air Force Championship squad.

He returned to College Park in 1955 and completed his studies for his Masters degree while teaching at Montgomery Hills Junior High, Silver Spring, Md.

Fellows started his basketball career in Goodman, Wisconsin, where he attended Madison Central High in Madison and starred in Football and Basketball. He returned to Wisconsin in 1957 and coached Basketball, Football and Baseball at Markesan High, Markesan, Wisconsin, from 1957 to 1960. While at Markesan his teams won Football and Baseball Championships. His basketball teams led their conference in defense two years and was runner-up his third year.

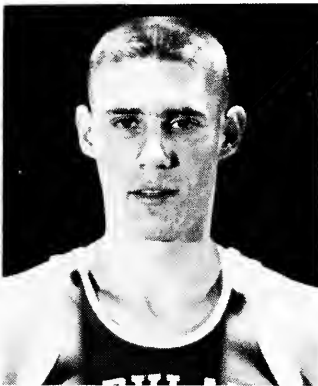

He coached the basketball team at Springbrook High, Silver Spring, Maryland, in 1960, the first year the Springbrook school was open, and accepted the assistant coaching position at Maryland last season.

Fellows married the former Beth Mouser of Louisiana, also a Maryland graduate and a Terrapin Cheerleader during Frank's varsity career. They have two boys: Cary 7, and Andy 4.

TIP-OFF ON THE TERPS

JOE BARTON — No. 5

JOE BARTON, 6-7, 215, 22, Senior from Beaverdale, Pa. — two-letterman who will provide insurance at center . . . oldest player on squad . . . an arts and sciences student with a major in psychology.

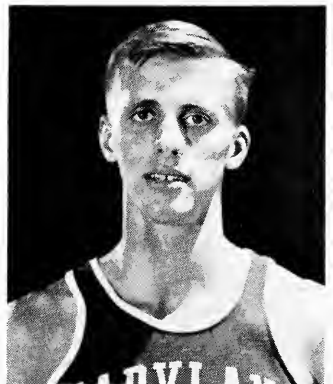

NEIL BRAYTON — No. 33

NEIL BRAYTON, 6-4, 176, 19, Soph. from Youngstown, Ohio — led frosh in scoring last year with 20.6 average . . . strong contender for a starting post . . . can play either forward or guard . . . with his speed, agility and ambition has great possibilities . . . could develop into one of Maryland's best guards. An outstanding pre-dental student.

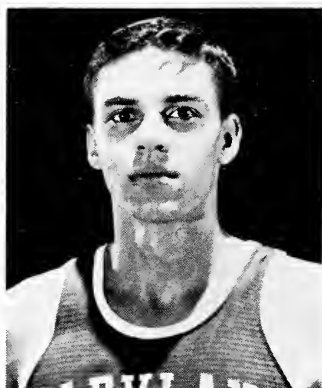

PHIL CARLSON — No. 45

PHIL CARLSON, 6-4, 163, 20, Junior from Takoma, Washington — lettered as a sophomore after making the starting five through conscientious effort and determination . . . has tremendous desire . . . aggressive, fine rebounder and driver . . . the finest student on the squad who has made the dean's list every semester with a 3.46 . . . an arts and sciences student.

JACKIE CLARK — No. 44

JACKIE CLARK, 6-4, 165, 19, Sophomore from Beverly, Ohio — a real jumping-jack . . . had phenomenal 91.1 average from the foul-line as a freshman and a 16.6 scoring average . . . once he gains confidence, could be tough (might even change nickname from Jackie to Jack!) . . . will play both guard and forward . . . another who made the dean's list in the arts and sciences.

MIKE DeCOSMO — No. 12

MIKE "Waxie" DeCOSMO, 5-10, 165, 19, Sophomore from Camden, N.J. — steady outside shooter and a heady little guard . . . fine middle-man on the fast-break . . . will give other guard candidates a run for the first team . . . another pre-dental student.

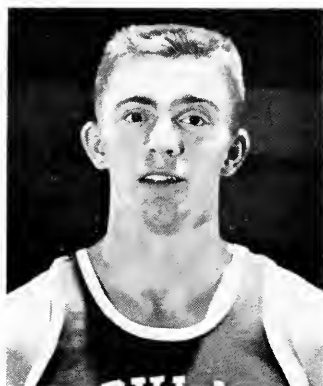

SCOTT FERGUSON — No. 54

SCOTT FERGUSON, 6-8, 225, 22, Senior from Piqua, Ohio — gained great deal of experience last year and wound up as the team's second highest scorer (9.0 average) and rebounder . . . broke into starting lineup midway the season and stayed there . . . big and strong and has good hook-shot . . . a physical education major.

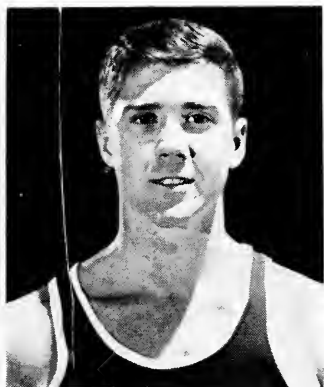

BILL FRANKLIN — No. 10

BILL FRANKLIN, 5-10, 160, 19, Sophomore from Mt. Airy, Md. — the smallest player on the squad but a scrappy, quick little guard . . . no one will out-hustle him . . . also a shortstop on the baseball team . . . majors in physical education.

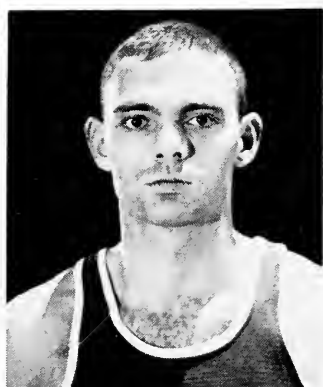

BOB LEWIS — No. 42

BOB LEWIS, 6-4, 202, 21, Junior from Silver Spring, Md. — product of nearby Northwood High who never played high school basketball but is determined to make a basketball player of himself . . . saw limited action last year but with experience could see some action as a forward or center . . . an English major in arts and sciences.

SAM McWILLIAMS — No. 40

SAM McWILLIAMS, 6-1, 185, 21, Junior from Washington, D.C. — letterman guard from the local area . . . played a lot as a soph. and did a good job, coming off the bench and adding a much-needed scoring punch . . . a fine outside shot . . . entered our basketball picture with no help but had become a grant-in-aid case midway his freshman year . . . an engineering student.

DICK MUELLER — No. 20

DICK MUELLER, 6-2, 183, 19, Sophomore from Independence, Mo. — one of the hardest workers on the squad . . . good speed and jumping ability . . . gets down the floor fast to cover . . . was playing as sixth man at the close of his freshman year and should definitely see much service as a guard or forward . . . a business administration major.

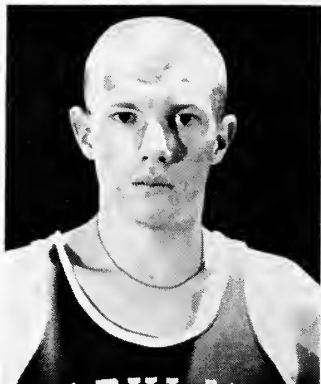

GEORGE SUDER — No. 30

GEORGE SUDER, 6-2, 192, 20, Sophomore from Aliquippa, Pa. — after a year out to adjust academic difficulties, appears ready for varsity . . . a guard prospect with big, strong hands . . . with continued effort could be a contender for starting berth . . . led the 1961-62 frosh in scoring . . . son of Pete Suder of the old Philadelphia As.

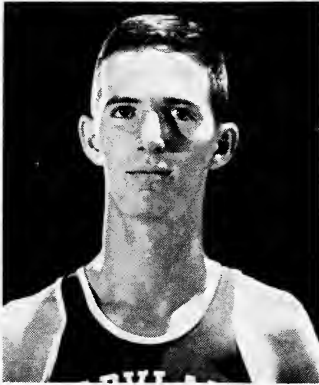

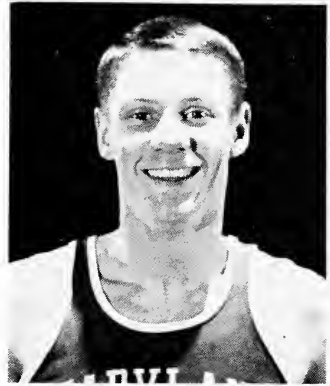

TERRY TRUAX — No. 25

TERRY TRUAX, 6-3, 190, 19, Sophomore from Hancock, Md. — came out on a try-out basis as a freshman and stuck with the squad . . . a likeable red-head who is learning to play outside after being an inside man during high school career . . . also plays baseball . . . a physical education major.

GARY WARD — No. 22

GARY "Spider" WARD, 6-5, 175, 19, Sophomore from Washington, D.C. — a product of DeMatha High in nearby Hyattsville who was second leading scorer (20.1 avg.) and next-to-top rebounder with frosh last year . . . an outside shooter who has a tremendous touch around the basket . . . dedicated to the game and definitely has chance to become a starter . . . possesses finest pair of hands on the squad . . . a business administration major.

RICK WISE — No. 55

RICK WISE, 6-8, 190, 19, Sophomore from Wilmington, Del. — has outstanding agility for a big man . . . handles ball like a small one . . . has shown tremendous improvement in a short time . . . a business administration major.

WILDCATS' RECORD AGAINST THE TERPS

First meeting

WILDCAT NOTES

LETTERMEN LOST (3): Wes Flynn, Monte Clausen, Regis Dauk.
LETTERMEN RETURNING (7): Albert Johnson, Warren Rustand,
Larry Harris, Dan Breck, Tom LaVoy, Buddy Doolen, Dennis Albright.

REPLACEMENTS: Harvey Fox (6-4), Bob Spahn (6-1), Ted Pickett
(6-5), Bob Hansen (6-6), Tom Sutton (6-7).

CAPSULE OUTLOOK: Bruce Larson's third year as Arizona basketball coach looks like a good bet to produce the school's first winning cage team in nine seasons. According to the young coach, the 1963-64 team should be much stronger than last year's squad (13-13) which posted the first non-losing record since 1956-57 and managed to knock off two top-ten teams, Wisconsin and Colorado. Seven lettermen will return including four of the top five scorers. This could give the Wildcats an all-veteran starting lineup although several talented sophomores from one of the best frosh teams ever will be strong candidates for starting berths. Leading the returnees are two second team all-WAC choices, Albert Johnson (6-5) and Warren Rustand (6-1). Johnson led the team in scoring (12.9 average) and rebounding (9.7). Rustand was the top shooter in both field goals (45.2%) and free throws (78.8%) and was second in scoring. Arizona again will stress defense. The Wildcats were ranked 22nd in the nation last season, holding their opponents to a 61.9 average per game.

SERIES HIGHLIGHTS

Highest scoring game (166 points) — 91-75, Maryland ('61 ACC Tourney).
Greatest margin of victory: For Maryland, 40 (1954) 81-41; for Clemson, 19 (1948) 68-49.

TIGER NOTES

LETTERMEN LOST (3): Chuck Narvin, Choppy Patterson, Larry Seitz.

LETTERMEN RETURNING (8): Jim Brennan, Donnie Mahaffey, Gary Burnisky, Nick Milsanovich, Mike Bohonak, Woody Morgan, Manning Privette, Richard Hall.

REPLACEMENTS: Garry Helms (6-4), Tom Corcoran (6-5), Ken Gardner (6-5), Buddy Benedict (5-7).

CAPSULE OUTLOOK: Coach Bobby Roberts, in his first year as head coach, guided Clemson to a 12-12 regular season mark, but the Tigers faced N. C. State in the first round of the ACC tourney to miss the .500 mark by one game. Returning this year are four seniors: Jim Brennan, Donnie Mahaffey, Gary Burnisky and Woody Morgan. Brennan has led the Tigers in scoring the past two years averaging 16.6 for 52 games. Mahaffey also averaged in double figures last year although his main asset is rebounding. Burnisky, Nick Milsanovich and Mike Bohonak all sank better than 40 percent of their shots as juniors, while Morgan is valuable under the boards. Four good prospects advance from the freshman team: Garry Helms, Tom Corcoran, Ken Gardner and Buddy Benedict. With the seasoned lettermen and some reserve power, the Tigers could again finish in the first division this year.

LETTERMEN RETURNING (7): Roy Bohaboy, Neil Farber, Mike Griffin, Art Klink, Les Lockspeiser, Ken McCulloch, Garland Wood.

REPLACEMENTS: Stan Felsinger (6-1), Ken Benoit (5-9), Phil Goldstein (6-5), John Burrows (6-5).

CAPSULE OUTLOOK: (According to Coach Rohan) I feel that the team eventually will be stronger, but we must fill the playmaker spot and the spot of the second "big man". Juniors like Neil Farber, Klink, McCulloch, Garland Wood, Lockspeiser and Griffin are going to be key men in the early going. No one, however, had a job clinched as the season started. Most of the boys who are experienced are also backcourt men. Our ultimate success will depend primarily on developing a good strong rebounder. It is difficult to evaluate our prospects in terms of wins and losses, but I expect that the overall tone of our opposition will be "improved". How successful we are depends on whether we improve more than the schedule. Farber scored on .493 percent of his floor shots last year — the highest figure in Columbia history. His 32 points against Brown were high for the year and he led the Lions in eight departments, dominating the offensive picture in his first varsity season. He was the first or second high man in all but one game and eight times went over the 20-point mark.

LETTERMEN LOST (2): Art Heyman, Fred Schmidt

LETTERMEN RETURNING (12): Jeff Mullins, Scott Williamson, Jay Buckley, Buzzy Harrison, Bill Urlich, Ray Cox, Ron Herbster, Denny Ferguson, Ted Mann, jr., Brent Kitching, Hack Tison, Bob Jamieson.

CAPSULE OUTLOOK: Duke went all the way to the final four last season and, despite the loss of two great players, will be good again. Coach Bubas will put them to the acid test early with the toughest December schedule in Duke history. It is obvious that the loss of collegiate basketball's greatest player last season, Art Heyman, and guard Fred Schmidt will hurt. Brilliant Jeff Mullins will return to lead the way and along with starters Jay Buckley and Buzzy Harrison and all of last year's reserves, Bubas hopes to have a well-balanced scoring unit. He also has some likely looking lads coming up from last year's frosh. Last year's team which ended 27-3 broke most of Duke's all-time records and it will be hard to equal, but Bubas is a born optimist and thinks his Blue Devils will be able to hold their own against any opponent.

ACES NOTES

LETTERMEN LOST (5): Walter Henry, Lynn Mautz, Marvin Pruett, Ed Rolan, Paul Utley

LETTERMEN RETURNING (9): Wayne, Boultinghouse, Briley, Bullard, Cox, Green, Sloan, Smith, Zausch

CAPSULE OUTLOOK: With four of the starting five that compiled a 21-6 record last year, Coach Arad McCutchan is expecting another successful campaign. However, December will be a tough grind with San Francisco State, South Dakota State and Purdue appearing on the home schedule before the Aces play host for the Holiday Invitational Tournament December 27-28. Arizona, Columbia and Maryland will be the outside teams for this competition. The five seniors on whom McCutchan is depending are Ed Zausch (6-9), Buster Briler (6-4), Jim Smith (6-3) — all starters last year — and Wayne Boultinghouse (6-3) and Paul Bullard (6-4). Jerry Sloan, winner of the Kiwanis Award last year and the top rebounder, will return as a junior. "We'll need every man we have to meet our schedule", McCutchan declares, "and we haven't even mentioned th gams with Notre Dame and arch-rival Kentucky Wesleyan".

(Maryland has won last 4 games)

1962-63 RESULTS

Maryland, 74; GW, 71 (at Maryland)

Maryland, 68; GW, 67 (at Ft. Myer)

SERIES HIGHLIGHTS

Highest scoring game (170 points) 86-84 Maryland (Overtime) 1960

Greatest margins of victory: For GW, 33 (1941), 61-28

For Maryland, 21 (1956), 67-46

Longest winning streak: GW won 9 straight (1947-53)

COLONIAL NOTES

LETTERMEN LOST (2): Don Ardell, Mike Checkan

LETTERMEN RETURNING (8): Joe Adamitis, Gary Holloman, Kenny Legins, Mark Clark, Phil Aruscavage, Ric Duques, Eddie Farrell, Joe Mullan

REPLACEMENTS: Harvey Mallis, Mark Welker

CAPSULE OUTLOOK: With a predominantly junior squad, featuring eight lettermen, the Colonials are looking forward to their first winning season in four years. Senior Joe Adamitis, 10.7, and juniors Mark Clark, 13.6 and Kenny Legins, 15.4, lead the returning scorers and will be counted on for the bulk of the scoring this year. The final two positions could go to Eddie Farrel, 5.1, or Phil Aruscavage, 3.0, both lettermen. However, Harvey Mallis, a 6-4 transfer, or Mark Welker, 26.7 as a freshman last year, could both wind up in the starting lineup. GW will be tested early as the Colonials open with Cincinnati, then travel to New York to meet St. John's and follow up with the Steel Bowl tournament (Duquesne, Pitt and Westminster).

REPLACEMENTS: (From Reserves and JVS): John Common, John Geraghty, Dave Kanning, Regis Matzie, Mark Rein, Bruce Terwilliger

(From 1962-63 Plebes): Bob Bandy, Roy Bell, Doug Law, Steve Miller, Ralph Mitchell, Gene Parchinski, Bill Radcliffe, Chris Reddington, Frank Smith

CAPSULE OUTLOOK: (Coach Ben Carnevale) "We face some unique challenges this season. Graduation took only three lettermen but they were our top scorer, No. 1 rebounder and the 'quarterback' of our backcourt. They will indeed be missed. Seven lettermen return but none of them were fulltime first-stringers last season. Woody Vaughan, our captain, was on the junior varsity until mid-season and Roger Staubach, another monogram winner, played only 26 minutes in our final five games. To tie it down to one word, we have to rebuild. The big question is whether to rebuild around lettermen or concentrate on the quick development of the many fine prospects from the 1962-63 plebe team, one of the best from an overall talent standpoint ever assembled here."

LETTERMEN RETURNING (8): Billy Cunningham, Billy Galantai, Charlie Shaffer, Ray Respass, Bryan McSweeney, Art Katz, Bill Brown, Mike Cooke

CAPSULE OUTLOOK: Billy Cunningham, a unanimous all-Atlantic Coast Conference choice as a sophomore, will pace what should be a good Carolina basketball team. The depth of the Tar Heels is more favorable than in recent years. Rebounding should be improved. On the negative side is a need for slick backcourt operatives, since starters Larry Brown and Yogi Poteet graduated. Cunningham averaged 22.7 points per game and 16 rebounds last season. He is bigger (6-5½, 210) and has added polish. Coming up from the frosh to aid him on the boards is 6-8½ Bob Bennett. Charlie Shaffer and Mike Cooke, who play both guard and forward, appear to be the likely backcourt combination. Letterman Ray Respass will struggle with vet Bryan McSweeney for the other forward spot. The Tar Heels were 15-6 last season and Coach Dean Smith expects the coming edition to be just as strong, providing Brown's play-making isn't missed too much.

WOLFPACK NOTES

LETTERMEN LOST (7): Jon Speaks, Ken Rohloff, John Key, Jim Whitfield, Pom Sinnock, Ron Gossell, Don Greiner

LETTERMEN RETURNING (2): Pete Auksel, Larry Lakins

REPLACEMENTS: Ray Hodgdon, 6-4; Hal Blondeau (6-4), John Arganbright (6-3), Larry Worsley (6-5)

CAPSULE OUTLOOK: The Wolfpack returns the most inexperienced squad Coach Everett Case has had in his previous 17 seasons at N.C. State. Not only are forwards Auksel and Lakins the only lettermen returning from a team which won only 10 of 21 games but they are the only men to have played as much as 20 minutes last season. Senior-to-be center Ron Gossell was severely injured in the automobile accident which took the life of Speaks and his status for the coming season is uncertain. The Wolfpack will neither be tall nor graced with speed, elements indicating that a revised style of play from past State teams is in the offing. "There will be some trying times, but I feel we can offset some of our shortcomings with added determination, spirit and hustle", says the veteran Case.

NITTANY LION NOTES

LETTERMEN LOST (2): Earl Hoffman, John Mitchell

LETTERMEN RETURNING (6): Capt. Bob Donato, Ron Avillion, Terry Hoover, John Ludwig, Tom Malinchak, Bob Weiss

CAPSULE OUTLOOK: Six returning lettermen, including four starters, a promising crop of newcomers from the best freshman squad in many years; a better bench, good speed, good defense, good shooting, and adequate size would make it appear that the Nittany Lions might equal their 15-5 record of last year (the school's best in a decade). But the schedule is the toughest ever. In short, the team could be better but the record not as good. Lions open at Duke and North Carolina State which is a tip-off on the schedule. They will play at home only eight times in the 22-game schedule.

REPLACEMENTS: Jim Fox, 6-8, 225; John Schroeder, 6-6, 205; Billy Woofter, 6-7, 215 (probably after February 1)

CAPSULE OUTLOOK. This year's South Carolina basketball team will have somewhat more height and heft than the short and skinny squad of last year, but otherwise will face many of the same problems that confronted Coach Chuck Noe a year ago. Noe, who had a highly successful seven-year tenure at Virginia Tech, posted a 9-15 record his first year with the Gamecocks but was in all but two games until the closing minutes. It was generally conceded he did an excellent job with his nine-man squad whose biggest starter was 6-4, 187. The returnees have the advantage of a full season of the Noe system of multiple offenses and defenses and the freshmen got a thorough indoctrination of the system. However, they will have to give 100 per cent-plus to finish above the .500 mark in the tough ACC.

LETTERMEN RETURNING (8) Chip Conner, Mac Caldwell, Fletcher Arritt, Kenneth Goble, Dick Katstra, Bernie Meyer, Gary Spohn, Jay Lambiotte

CAPSULE OUTLOOK: Eight lettermen return and a better record is indicated. The two big words in Virginia basketball this season are expected to be Chip Conner. Conner, who is the team captain, is one of the finest players ever to perform for the Cavaliers at forward. He will be supported by 6-6 junior Mac Caldwell, who led in rebounding last year while averaging 13 points a game. The greatest need is for some scoring from the guard positions and a big man to help Conner and Caldwell with the rebounding.

LETTERMEN LOST (4): Dave Wiedeman, Bob Wollard, Al Koehler,
Ted Zawacki

LETTERMEN RETURNING (6): Frank Christie, Dick Carmichael,
Butch Hassell, Ronny Watts, Brad Brooks, Dick Herring

CAPSULE OUTLOOK: Three regulars from last year's ACC runners-up along with center Ronny Watts who saw action in all 26 games, give Coach Bones McKinney a sound nucleus around which to build his 1963-64 club. The regulars are forwards Christie and Carmichael and guard Hassell.

Herring is another letterman who will battle for a starting job. Bob Leonard, top scorer for the frosh with a 19.9
average last winter, could be in the starting five. Watts, an excellent jumper, will be the big man in the lineup at 6-6. McKinney feels the team could be as strong as last season.

MOUNTAINEER NOTES

LETTERMEN LOST (4): Rod Thorn, Jim McCormick, Dave Shuck, Gale Catlett

LETTERMEN RETURNING (5): Marty Lentz, Tom Lowry, Bill Maphis, Don Weir, Mike Wolfe

CAPSULE OUTLOOK: West Virginia's long string of basketball all-Americas comes to an end, but the Mountaineers still will be shooting for their ninth consecutive season of 20 or more victories in the coming campaign. Without Rod Thorn, who followed Jerry West and Hot Rod Hundley in a line of some of the nation's brightest college stars, West Virginia will be hard pressed to keep up the 20-game tradition — a mark surpassed only by Kentucky with 14 straight 20-win seasons ending in 1959. Besides Thorn, the Mountaineers also lost Jim McCormick, two of the top seven scorers in the school's history. Coach King, whose .795 winning percentage for three years equals the six-year record of his predecessor Fred Schaus, will call for more team balance and scoring punch up front to compensate for losing an outstanding back line. The returning front line of tall Tom Lowry, Mike Wolfe and Bill Maphis contributed only one-third of the team's points last season.

INDOOR TRACK

HEAD COACH:

James Kehoe (Maryland '40) 17th season.

1962-63 Dual meet record; Won 1, Lost 0.

LETTERMEN RETURNING:

1962-63 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS:

Mike Cole	Broad Jump (22-8¼)
*John Prettyman	600 yard run (1:12.5)
Bob Vermillion	700 yard high hurdles (8.8)
*John Belitza	Pole Vault (15-1¼)
Dick Smith	880 yard run (1:52.8)
Chris Stauffer	700 yard low hurdles (7.6)
*Bill Grey, Chris Stauffer, John Prettyman, Dick Smith	Mile Relay (3:20.2)
*CONFERENCE MEET RECORDS

NOTES:

Maryland has won eight ACC championships in a row and nine of the ten held.

John Belitza became the first collegian to break the 16 foot mark in the pole vault at Boston last January.

Dick Smith's time of 2:09.3 in the 1000 yards last Winter was the fastest run by an American citizen last season indoors.

With 22 lettermen back, the picture is fairly bright, but the most encouraging signs are to be found on coach Kehoe's frosh squad which appears loaded.

1964 SCHEDULE

Mar. 7	Atlantic Coast Conference Meet	Chapel Hill, N.C.

SWIMMING

HEAD COACH:

Bill Campbell (Springfield '53) 8th season as coach. Seven year record: Won 62, Lost 22.

1962-63 RECORD:

Won 10, Lost 2.

ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

RECORD:

Won 5, Lost 2.

Tri-Champions of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

CO-CAPTAINS:

Ron Squiers and Doc Dunphy.

LETTERMEN RETURNING:

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS IN 1963:

Maryland won the conference meet at Raleigh and finished third behind North Carolina and North Carolina State to tie with the Wolfpack and the Tarheels for the crown. The same trio shared the title in 1961 with Maryland winning outright in 1960 and 1962.

NOTES:

Graduation hit the Terps hard, and unless the sophs come through, coach Bill Campbell feels that the team will be hard pressed to equal last year's 10-2 overall mark, the ACC crown, and the Eastern Inter-collegiate Relay Carnival title.

Co-captain and all-American Ron Squiers handles the diving very well, and there are good prospects in the butterfly, freestyle and sprint events.

Here again a good frosh team appears to be a very encouraging sign, with Baltimore's Phil Denkevitz, and two other high school all-Americans, Joe Brey and Mac Pardew, ready to go.

1962-63 RECORD:

Won 6, Lost 2, Tied 0.

1962-63 ACC RECORD:

Won 4, Lost 0.

Champions of the Atlantic Coast Conference, winning conference tournament with 103 points.

CO-CAPTAINS:

Marshal Dauberman and Fred Sentner.

LETTERMEN RETURNING:

Nelson Aurand, Marshall Dauberman, Tim Geiger, Bob Kopnisky, Dave Ott, Fred Sentner, Amando Soto, Gary Wikander.

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS:

115 lbs.—Roger Neutze

130 lbs.—Ron Maunder

137 lbs.—Dave Ott

147 lbs.—Sam Bossert

157 lbs.—Bob Kopnisky

167 lbs.—Amando Soto

177 lbs.—Marshall Dauberman

191 lbs.—Tim Geiger

Heavyweight—Gary Wikander

OUTSTANDING WRESTLER OF ACC TOURNAMENT:

Bob Kopnisky, 157 pound class.

NOTES:

Maryland has won ten consecutive conference titles, 1954-63. The Terps have won 70 of the possible 88 individual titles.

The Terp matmen have won 55 straight conference matches including the last nine in the old Southern Conference. Maryland has never had a losing season with a 5-5 mark in 1948, the first season that wrestling was a major varsity sport in College Park being the closest.

Maunder and Bossert were ACC champs all three varsity years. Dauberman has won two straight championships in his two years of competition so far.

Terps have had 137 and 147 pound champs all ten years.

Maryland's conference record since the ACC was formed: 46-0-0.
